H. Morgan and lady were among those who attended the Ebenstein-Burgess wedding at Vark. The ceremony was performed according to the beautiful marriage service of the Friends and one could not help thinking how anyone could prove untrue to vows so solemnly and beautifully spoken. -o- Mrs. Kenyon has been holding a series of religious meetings here this week. Hiram Davis of Crestline preached Tuesday evening and Jeremiah Hubbard came Tuesday evening and will probably stay until next week. The sickness of his family prevented his coming sooner. Those who have heard Rev. Hubbard before need no invitation to hear him again. He is a powerful, magnetic speaker and as a revivalist cannot help but be successful. We expect such meetings as have not been held here for years. Come early; house sure to be crowded.

LOWELL STATION.

LOWELL, KAN., March 3, 1890.

Ed. News: As your correspondent here, "Anon," seems to be a little bit partial in her item gathering I desire to inform you of a very delightful and successful social party and hop held at the residence of T. W. Murray a week ago last Monday, Feb. 24, of which no mention has been made. About twelve couples were present and though the affair properly comes under the head of "dances," yet those present think it was respectable and well worthy of notice in connection with other local news items from this place.

Yours, FAIRPLAY.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became a Girl, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

A Damp Locality.

Texas titlings.

Would-be tenant: "So this is the house that is advertised for rent?"
Janitor: "Yes, boss."

"In the advertisement it reads that there is running water here. Where is it?"

"Down on de first floor de water runs down de walls bit's so damp."

From the Old Battle Field.

Elder B. F. Kittinger of Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, says he had been suffering with a cold and cough, also his wife; that they took to using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and received great benefit from it. Yet he says, "it was so pleasant to take."

First Maine man: "Going out west are you, Budger? What state—Dakota?"

Second Maine man: "Not much! No more prohibition states for me. I mean to turn over a new leaf and be a sober man, if I can."

Don't Bear It.

For rheumatism there is nothing better than Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The prompt relief which it affords is alone worth many times its cost, which is but fifty cents per bottle. Many very bad cases have been permanently cured by it.

IRL R. HICKS' WEATHER PROPHECY.

The following taken from the "storm chart" for 1890 of Rev. Irl R. Hicks of St. Louis will prove interesting to many. Here are his predictions for MARCH.

March will open cold and clear. About the 3d atmospheric changes will begin which precede all regular storms—it will turn warmer changing to easterly and southerly winds and soft, cirro-streaked sky, ending in rain and snow storms about the 4th, 5th and 6th. Cold will follow, moderating for scattering storms on the 10th and 11th. The middle storm period for the month is from the 14th to the 18th, with danger days about the 14th, 15th, 16th and 17th. Venus and Earth both bear upon this period. It is one which calls for prudence and care on sea and land. The same disturbing factors will intensify the elements on the 21st and 22d. From the 25th to the 31st there is an unusual combination of storm-producing causes. Blizzards and snow blockades need not surprise to the north, nor terrific rains, sleet, thunder and tornadoes southward. The month will end cold. There will be earthquake shocks in many places during March storm periods.

Apocryphal.

Puck.

Mrs. Phondyze (with subdued pride): "This is my little Elsie; just three months old to-day!"

Mrs. Chatphast: "Three months? Is she really? Oh, well (encouragingly), when her hair grows and she gets some teeth it will make all the difference in the world. But, talking of ugly babies, if you could see my cousin Dora's last you would think this one quite a beauty!"

Is Consumption Incurable.

Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with Abscess of Lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable Consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, am now on my third bottle, and am able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made."

Jesse Middlewart, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of Lung Troubles. Was given up by doctors. Am now in best of health." Try it. Sample bottles 10c at Craig's drug store. 5

Understood Both.

New York Weekly.

Indulgent father: "My son, your education has cost me $20,000. I have spent all I have and you must now go right to work and earn a living at something you understand."

Finished son (Harvard '89): "Well, father, which would you rather have me be, a base ball pitcher or a billiard marker?"
